

English 9 – 12

(two hour class)

Salem Homeschool Academy

2017-2018

Mrs. Virginia Eldridge

COURSE DESCRIPTION: a course design to enhance the high school student's ability to read and understand literature and develop verbal and written expression. This course takes an in-depth look at classic British novels plus poetry, essays, and short stories. Pupils will learn to critique the work of others and create their own written work. A writing supplement will be added to improve writing skills and encourage higher level readers through step by step lessons.

MATERIALS NEEDED: spiral bound notebook, pens, and pencils.

TEXTS: LEARNING LANGUAGE ARTS THROUGH LITERATURE – The Gold Book British Literature

British Literature Supplements:

Animal Farm by George Orwell

British Poetry Anthology

Emma by Jane Austin

Frankenstein by Mary Shelley

The Time Machine by H.G.Wells

EASY GRAMMAR SERIES EASY WRITING level two

INSTRUCTOR: Virginia Eldridge

Late.ketland@gmail.com

812-755-5131

Bachelor of Arts, Home Economics, University of Louisville

I homeschooled my own children (3) through high school and have taught

Sewing Construction for two years at the Salem Homeschool Academy.